five in the national Capital circuit, winning the first by 17 pins and taking the next two by fair margins. Van Borsik with 133, 99, and 118 was among the best.

Wants Fat Salary.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Fritz Maier, the Yankees' third baseman, is trying to sign a three-year contract at $5,000 a year. Frank Farrell wants to hook him up for that length of time, but is declining to pay the amount asked.

EXPECT MITCHELL OR VAIL TO PLAY

Either One Will Act as Quarterback For Navy in Contest With Georgetown.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 9.—With the exception of the quarterback position, there is little doubt now as to the lineup of the Naval Academy team against Georgetown on Saturday. Three candidates for the position were tried out yesterday including Mitchell and Vail, who were used in the opening game against Pittsburgh on Saturday, and Vinson, who played on his class team last year and is the regular pitcher of the Academy nine. Chances favor either Mitchell or Vail, though Vinson may be heard from later in the season.

Mitchell has had more experience with big company, as Vail played on the fourth-class team last year, but the latter is a more dashing player and a better man on running with the ball.
Vinson and Austin are still to be considered, but Miles, another candidate, is now trying for halfback, and was given a chance there yesterday.

With Mitchell at quarter, and with all the other places filled by those who will start against Georgetown on Saturday, barring accident, the practice yesterday was said by the coaches to be the most satisfactory of any this season.

The backfield was finished out with Kelley and Leonard at the halves, and Harrison at full. The halves were later succeeded by Failing and Miles, Vail and Vinson were given a try at halfback, but the stalwart Harrison finished out the scrimmage period at fullback. Overesch was at left end, and it now appears that he has the call over Ingram, the regular occupant of the place last season.

V. M. I. Wins Midweek Game From Mississippi

LEXINGTON, Va., Oct. 9.—Youell, Gallagher, and Lowry are being made the centers of attraction today following the mid-week defeat of the university of Mississippi football team 14 to 9 yesterday.

Using straight football throughout both touchdowns were scored, the home team making its backfield count for many yards on straight plunges.

BOB THAYER'S SPORTING GOSSIP

"EVERY KNOCK IS A BOOST."

Larry did it.
"Long Larry" McLean, for years the football of the National League, turned down by every manager in it, owing to his wild habits, proved the boy with the stuff yesterday. It was his drive in the tenth that brought the downfall of Eddie Plank. Larry jumped from St. Louis to New York in midseason, from a tailender to a champion. And he has made good.

Fail to draw.
The Naps-Pirates series is proving a decided failure as a drawing card. The fans of the two cities refuse to become excited over a meaningless series. They prefer to watch the bulletin boards for world's series returns. If the players get $400 each they will be doing well.

More lemon boxing.
Another lemon bout is on the cards for New York tonight. "Gunboat" Smith will pick up a little easy money for battering Carl Morris, the exploded "whits hope." The marvel is that New York boxing fans, who claim to know more than those of any other city, will stand for the bouts being offered them.

White Sox start.
The White Sox have won their first game from the Cubs in the Chicago city championship series. They stand 3 to 2 on the annual series to date and debating fraternity believes they will defeat the West Siders this year. All Chicago turns out to see these games and a pretty pot will go to each player.

Easy for Penn.
Swarthmore no longer has George Brooke, and the Garnet eleven is likely to receive the worst beating on Saturday that it has had for a number of years at the hands of the Penn team.
Brooke has held of Penn this season, and from the looks of things is bringing forward the Penn team to a season that will exceed the wildest hopes of Penn supporters.

Bannockburn busy.
The Bannockburn golf tournament, starting today, will come nearer determining a District champion than any other tournament held in the city for some time. Practically all of the local cracks are entered, and the out-of-town golfers will not be on hand. This will mean that the winner will come near being the District title holder.

Cross for title.

Brown, clinched his right to meet the

Princeton and Yale To Arrange Boat Race

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 9.—Princeton and Yale are to have a boat race next spring and a return race next fall, according to the announcement at Princeton University today. Negotiations for the race this fall have been going on for a long time, and today they were concluded with the announcement that the Tigers have accepted the challenge of the Blues.

The race will take place on Lake Carnegie, here, and will be rowed on either the morning of October 25 or November 1. One of the conditions of this race is a return race next spring. The details of this return race as to time and place are left to be settled later on.

Quarterback Freedley Is Lost to Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 9.—Vince-Freedley, the best quarterback in the Harvard squad, is lost to the eleven.
In yesterday's scrimmage he was kicked on the head, suffering a slight concussion. He is in Stillman Infirmary, where the physicians believe he will remain for a week or more. There is doubt as to his playing again this season.

Swarthmore to Play Pennsy on Saturday

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 9.—The Swarthmore College-University of Pennsylvania football game, which it was feared would be called off because the members of the former team were vaccinated a few days ago following a discovery that a student at the college was suffering from a slight attack of smallpox, will be played next Saturday, as originally planned.

Announcement was made today that if any of the Swarthmore players who were vaccinated were unable to play, substitutes would be used in their places.

REGULARS ARE OUT OF GALLAUDET TEAM

Kendall Green Eleven Meets Richmond on Saturday With Three Men Missing.

Gallaudet will play Richmond College Saturday with three regular players out of the line-up. Coach Crafts will not use Marshall, Fols or Cusaden, the last named being hurt in a contest with Central yesterday.

The Buff and Blue team took on Central yesterday, trimming the O's 27 to 6.
In limited periods. Cusaden was unable to get into the line-up.

Roster Is Large.

The Brooklyn club has thirty-two players on its roster for next season.

Cornish Is Leading All Other Candidates

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 9.—Cornish is leading all other candidates for quarterback with the Yale eleven, and is almost certain to start the Lafayette game Saturday. George Ade and Guy Hutchinson, former stars here, are working long and strenuously with him in the hopes of smoothing out the rough edges in his work.

Captain Ketcham is being retained at left guard and Carter is holding down right end in the scrimmage.
"Pie" Way, former Exeter star, may replace Cooney Saturday, the latter being on the hospital list.

Oberlin Continues To Play Good Game

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 9.—Oberlin, the Washington D. C. freshman, continues to play an excellent game at halfback with the Lafayette varsity and will be expected to shine against Yale Saturday. Yale should win but if Lafayette can get within scoring distance of the Elm grove posts, Dan-hower will be called upon to try for a field goal. His kicking is very good.
